Our School Crest

The torch, with its glowing red flame, symbolizes the light of integrity and the warmth of compassion. It inspires every student to bear the truth, stand up for righteousness and at the same time, have a heart for others, and serve those in need.

The combination of the twirling background design together with the torch is a stylized depiction of the letters, "ai", the abbreviated form of the school's name, Ahmad Ibrahim Secondary School.

Green represents our shared value of harmony in a multi-racial, multi-religious school and the colour silver, our perseverance in the pursuit of excellence.

Our School Song

With different dreams and aspirations
We've come to share a vision
Where each of us is special and treasured
With love and patience we are nurtured
Our school our home, our cosy haven
A place to learn life's lessons
With different races and many faces
In harmony we'll make a difference

With hearts that care, we journey
From strength to strength we grow
Undaunted by the challenges
We strive towards our goal

Ahmad Ibrahim, my school I hold so dear
Ignited with passion to learn and care
Growing together with all I share

Ahmad Ibrahim, my school I hold so dear
To serve my school and nation
With integrity and compassion

History of Ahmad Ibrahim Secondary School

Origins of Our School and Our Unique Heritage

Ahmad Ibrahim Secondary School's story began in 1963. Our school was named after the late Encik Ahmad Ibrahim, the former Minister for Health and Labour, who was also the Assemblyman for Sembawang. First located in Upper Thomson, the school moved to the current Yishun campus in 1985.

Since its founding, our school has been called to serve a key role in the larger Singapore story. A very significant fact about our history is that we started out as an integrated school that offered two mediums of instruction - the Chinese and the English language - during a time when most schools only offered one. The Malay Language was introduced shortly after. In doing so, the school played a key role in helping to promote social cohesion among students of different ethnic groups and languages in the early nation-building years.

In 1987, in line with the national education policy, the school adopted English as the main medium of instruction. The last batch of Chinese-educated students graduated in 1986.

Today, we continue to champion an inclusive environment, welcoming diverse groups of students. Our school is a microcosm reflective of the multi-ethnic and multi-cultural society that Singapore is, as it continues to bring together students of different languages, cultural backgrounds and student needs.

In terms of student needs, another unique feature of our school is the integration of visually impaired students into mainstream education. In 1967, we were the first pilot school for the Open Education Programme for the blind. Today, we continue to have visually impaired students studying together in the same class as other students.

The Story of Encik Ahmad Ibrahim

Encik Ahmad Ibrahim began his career under British rule in Singapore. He was an unionist known for his courage in speaking up for the rights and welfare of the workers in the Naval Base in Sembawang.

In 1955, the British agreed to grant limited self-government to Singapore, allowing 25 locals to be elected to the government which would give locals a greater say in how the country was run. Encik Ahmad Ibrahim took part in the 1955 elections as an independent candidate. He won in Sembawang, reflecting the trust the people of Sembawang had in him to speak up for their cause.

A year later, Encik Ahmad Ibrahim joined the People's Action Party (PAP) led by Mr Lee Kuan Yew. In the 1959 General Elections, this time as part of the PAP, Encik Ahmad Ibrahim won yet again and was appointed Minister for Health. Two years later, in 1961, he was appointed Minister for Labour in a Cabinet reshuffle.

History of Ahmad Ibrahim Secondary School

As Minister for Health, Encik Ahmad Ibrahim navigated Singapore through challenging times. To tackle the tuberculosis pandemic in Singapore, he campaigned for locals to get themselves tested, reassuring them it was safe to go for X-ray scans to detect and treat the disease early. Encik Ahmad Ibrahim also proposed the decentralisation of healthcare to housing estates, introducing polyclinics during his time as Minister for Health. As Minister for Labour, he faced immense pressure in managing labour unrest and the influence of the communists, but never wavered. Even as he battled chronic illness for years, he answered the nation's call to serve with distinction, placing others before self.

In 1962, Encik Ahmad Ibrahim passed on at the tender age of 35. The state flag was lowered at half-mast and a state funeral was held as a mark of high regard and respect for Encik Ahmad Ibrahim. A year later, our school was named after Encik Ahmad Ibrahim to honour his contributions to Singapore posthumously.

Significance of the School Name - Living out the AL Spirit

Being named after Encik Ahmad Ibrahim serves as a reminder and an inspiration for our teachers and students to emulate his qualities of resilience, determination, courage, integrity and service. The school strives to live out these qualities through our core school values and school programmes.

Encik Ahmad Ibrahim displayed great resilience in serving the nation in spite of his illness. In our school, we hope to develop a similar spirit of resilience in our students through our Outdoor Learning Experience (OLE). Students venture outdoors, participating in kayaking, rock climbing, cycling as well as hiking in nature reserves. These outdoor activities typically stretch over four days, so students learn to build up their mental and emotional strength as they take on physical challenges. We hope that in the process, our students will develop 'great guts' and 'great determination'; qualities that our former Prime Minister Lee Kuan Yew used to describe Encik Ahmad Ibrahim. Introduced in 2005, OLE has provided a unique set of collective memories that define our AI identity and heritage. Batches after batches of AI students have gained much from OLE and remember their experiences for years to come.

Encik Ahmad Ibrahim is well-remembered for his heart of service. The school's Applied Learning Programme (ALP) - Critical Social Inquiry and Media Literacy - seeks to continue his legacy, as we develop students to be critical thinkers and concerned citizens who care deeply about the community they live in and who have the courage to lead and serve by taking action on societal causes they believe in.

Reinforcing this is the school's service learning programme that aims to nurture in our students the same spirit of service to the community. In Ahmad Ibrahim Secondary School, we take a whole-school approach to service learning. Every year, each class undertakes a service learning project of their choice. This is entirely student-initiated; students find out about various community groups that need help, decide on the community project they wish to focus on and plan for the project over a period of eight to nine weeks. On Community Day, the school carries out various community service projects, reaching out to serve different segments of society all over Singapore. This is yet another way we live out the values of Encik Ahmad Ibrahim, serving others, unwaveringly, just as Encik Ahmad Ibrahim had done.

STUDENT DEVELOPMENT MATTERS

1. Character and Citizenship Education CCE 2021

CCE is at the heart of education in Singapore. Through CCE, students learn values, social-emotional competencies, and develop character and citizenship dispositions that enable them to grow holistically and learn for life.

In AI, we value the holistic development of every student. The school has implemented the CCE curriculum to anchor AI students on a strong foundation of moral values, good character and resilience. This is in alignment to our mission to grow students with strength of character, nurture inquiring and disciplined minds and inspiring them with courage to lead and serve. We will also encourage AI students to play a more active role as citizens of Singapore as they care, learn and excel for AI and for the nation.

CCE 2021 Curriculum Framework

Goals

CCE 2021 aims to inculcate AI students with good character who have a sound moral compass and a strong sense of right and wrong. The AI student will be able to think critically and ethically, be discerning in judgment and take responsibility for his/her own choices and actions.

Students will also demonstrate resilience when faced with challenges and enhance their social- emotional well-being through a balanced sense of self and healthy relationships with their peers.

In addition, AI will promote active citizenship based on a sense of belonging to the nation, a sense of hope in themselves and the future, an awareness of the reality of Singapore's vulnerabilities and constraints, and the will to act on improving the lives of others and building a future for our nation.

Lastly, we aim to prepare AI students to be future ready by developing the dispositions of adaptability and lifelong learning so students will be able to navigate education and career pathways purposefully/ and take on the challenges of the future. There are several learning platforms where CCE is enacted with,intentionality. These include CCE lessons during curriculum time, key Student Development Experiences (SDEs) beyond the classroom, school-based initiatives, teachable moments during other subject lessons, and learning opportunities beyond school.

STUDENT DEVELOPMENT MATTERS

1. Cyber Wellness

Cyber Wellness refers to the positive well-being of internet users. It involves an understanding of the norms of appropriate, responsible behaviour with regard to technology use as well as knowledge, skills, values and attitudes on how to protect oneself and other internet users in the cyber world. It looks into the positive physical and psychosocial well-being of students in their use of mobile and internet technologies.

With assembly talks, follow-up lessons, exhibitions and competition on Cyber Wellness, the aim of the Cyber Wellness programme at AI is to develop AI students into discerning and responsible ICT users who are able to protect themselves and be responsible for their well-being in the cyberspace.

While creating instant connectivity and access to vast repositories of information, knowledge, and opinions, the open nature of the Internet can expose our students to undesirable content and influences. Cyber Wellness lessons in CCE are important as they focus on the well-being of our students as they navigate cyberspace, equipping them with the knowledge and skills to harness the power of ICT for positive purposes, maintain a positive presence in cyberspace, and be safe and responsible users of ICT.

The school adopts MOE's Cyber Wellness Framework in educating our students on Cyber Wellness. This framework focuses on three key processes: Sense, Think and Act.

Sense - Think - Act Process

Sense: Identify the possible risks of harmful behaviours online and learn how to protect oneself

Think: Analyse, evaluate and reflect on the online situation based on the three CW principles

Act: Translate understanding into actions to be safe and have a positive presence online

2. Student Leadership Development

Our Vision for Student Leadership Development

At AISS, we aim to nurture our students with the strength of character to care, lead and serve.

Our Beliefs

We believe that

- Every student can and should be developed as a leader.
- Leadership can be developed over time.
- Leadership development should be intentional.

Our Approach

Our approach to student leadership development is undergirded by Kouzes and Posner's Student Leadership Challenge model which encapsulates our beliefs and principles in developing the leadership competencies in Al students. The framework exemplifies the desired student outcomes, where a student leader in Al is an agent of positive change; is proactive and possesses adaptive, critical and inventive thinking; a confident communicator who empathizes and in doing so, better serve the community.

STUDENT DEVELOPMENT MATTERS

With a structured approach, we are intentional in developing our student leaders through various leadership opportunities and training. As AI students lead and serve the school and community, they apply what they have learnt, evaluate their leadership effectiveness and reflect on how they can sharpen their leadership competencies.

STUDENT DEVELOPMENT MATTERS

3. Co-Curricular Activities (CCA)

Our Vision for Co-Curricular Activities

All ladies and gentlemen will nurture their talents and learn life skills to excel with the strength of character while anchored in values.

Our Beliefs

We believe that

- Every student will learn, grow and excel in their respective CCAs.
- Every student is given the opportunity to discover their interests and talents.
- Every CCA will provide the opportunities for students to learn life skills and values to navigate future challenges.

Our Approach:

AISS students are holistically developed through a 3E approach (Exposure, Experience, and Excellence). The delivery of CCAs is learner-centered, and the student development plans intentionally provide the opportunities to shape character and citizenship in our students as they work towards the achievement of the 21st Century Competencies and Student Outcomes.

STUDENT DEVELOPMENT MATTERS

- 1.1 CCA is compulsory for all secondary school students. Secondary school students may pursue their interests and participate in external activities, but not in-lieu of a school-based CCA.
- 1.2 Every student must fulfill at least 75% attendance with valid reasons given for non-attendance. Action will be taken against students who do not turn up for CCA despite repeated warnings from Teacher-In-Charge.
 - Points are awarded for participation in the main CCA with at least 75% attendance rate.
 - Students who do not fulfill the 75% attendance rate may not be eligible for any school-based awards, MOE Awards, or any written testimonials about CCA.
- 1.3 The school will allocate the CCA to Secondary 1 students (after considering students' submitted preferences and specific CCA requirements). This will be based on maximizing students' potential, considering the school's focus. Students are not allowed to change their CCA once it has been finalised. Secondary 1 students will have until the end of February to decide on their CCA, subject to available vacancies.
- 1.4 Students cannot change or terminate their participation in their CCA unless they can produce a valid medical certificate stating that they are unable to continue in the activities. The student must fill out a transfer form with the Teacher-In-Charge and parent's endorsement.
- 1.5 CCA practices/training sessions and meetings are usually held weekly after 1430 hrs on Wednesday and Friday. (Some CCAs can be held on Monday afternoons, and a PG message will be issued to parents to confirm the timing of the CCA at the start of the year.) Whenever the need arises, especially closer to competition or performances, practices may be conducted on other days.
- 1.6 CCAs will stand down 3 weeks before the end-of-year examinations.
- 1.7 The change of CCA for Secondary 2 to 5 students will only be in January and February. Students are to obtain the transfer form from the CCA teachers and obtain the necessary approval from the respective Teacher-In-Charge. The CCA teacher accepting the student must sign the form first before the releasing CCA teacher will sign.
Note: There will not be any extension to the period for the change of CCA unless medical documentation is produced. Nonetheless, LEAPS 2.0 will continue to accord higher recognition to students with sustained participation in the same CCA to encourage progressive CCA-specific development and character development.

LEAPS 2.0

LEAPS 2.0 is a framework to recognise secondary school students' holistic development. Students will be recognised with levels of attainment in four domains: Participation, Achievement, Leadership and Service.

Participation

This domain recognises students' participation in one school-based Co-Curricular Activity

(CCA)¹. Recognition is based on the number of years of participation and exemplary conduct and active contribution² to the CCA. Sustained engagement in the same CCA allows for progressive development of character, skills, knowledge and friendships, and will be accorded higher recognition.

¹ School-based CCA refers to CCA that are organised within the school or have been endorsed, by the school.

² Schools have processes in place to determine 'exemplary conduct and active contribution' with respect to their school's context.

Service

This domain recognises students' development as socially responsible citizens who contribute meaningfully to the community. Every secondary school student will contribute at least 6 hours per school year to the community. They can choose to embark on a Values-In- Action project (VIA). Students will be recognised for the time they put into planning, service and reflection, when participating in a VIA project.

Leadership

This domain recognises students' leadership development. Recognition is accorded to students' ability to take charge of personal development, work in a team and assume responsibilities in service of others. In addition to formal leadership appointments, participation in student leadership modules/workshops, the National Youth Achievement Award (NYAA) and leadership positions in the school, CCA or student initiated/student-led projects will also be recognised.

Achievement

This domain recognises students' representation and accomplishment in co-curricular involvements beyond the classroom. Opportunities for representation and accomplishment present valuable learning experiences for students to learn discipline, resilience and develop their character. Students may represent the school or organisations endorsed by the school. Recognising external opportunities better caters to students' diverse interests and talents. It also recognises the community's role in developing the child.

Representation refers to being selected and endorsed by the school or an organisation endorsed by the school (e.g. the community club or national association) to contribute, perform or compete. It need not be tied to his/her CCA in school.

Accomplishment refers to attaining accolades and awards at competitions, festivals, performances, exhibitions, conferences and symposiums where the student represents the school or other organisations endorsed by the school.

At the end of the graduating year, students' co-curricular attainment will be recognised according to Excellent / Good / Fair. The level of attainment will be converted to a bonus point(s) which can be used for admission to Junior Colleges/ Polytechnics/ Institute of Technical Education (JC/Poly/ITE).

Co-Curricular Attainment	Details
Excellent (2 bonus points)	Student who attains a minimum Level 3 in all four domains with at least a Level 4 in one domain.
Good (1 bonus point)	Student who attains a minimum Level 1 in all four domains with any one of the following: i. At least Level 2 in three domains; ii. At least Level 2 in one domain and at least Level 3 in another domain; or iii. At least Level 4 in one domain.
Fair	Student's attainment in co-curricular activities do not translate into any bonus points.

STUDENT DEVELOPMENT MATTERS

4. Student Well-Being

Student Well-Being is at the core of the school's approach for holistic development.

The school is the second home for students where they learn, grow and develop a strong sense of belonging and school pride in a caring and enabling environment.

Guided by the school's Vision, Mission and anchored in our school Values, the Student Well-Being

Framework articulate the approach in creating engaging, meaningful, and valued-based student experiences as follow:

- a. Positive School Tone
- b. Positive Relationships
- c. Empowerment
- d. Recognition

Through the building of a positive school tone, the school is a safe, caring and enabling environment for student learning and development. Positive relationships, including positive TSR (teacher-student relationships) and PSR (peer support and relationships), ensure that students have trusted adults and peers in school whom they can rely on for support. The school empowers students by ensuring student voice and student choice in various aspects of school life. The school also recognises student efforts and achievements through various platforms such as the AI GEM Awards, Ordinary Miracles@AI and parent-teacher meetings.

Students are encouraged to approach their Form Teachers or other adults in school such as the School Counsellor, SEN officers, Student Welfare Officer should they need help or support.

In addition, the following external organisations are able to assist students in need:

5. Student Recognition

To support student holistic development, the school recognises students who demonstrate the school values and excel in academic and co-curricular domains. There are awards in different categories at school and national levels to promote school pride and sense of belonging. This is part of the school's continuous efforts in nurturing students of good values and character, who are active contributors and concerned citizens.

At the national level, the Lee Kuan Yew Award for All-Round Excellence (ARE) is the pinnacle award that aims to recognise well-rounded students who have excelled in both academic and non-academic spheres, and who exemplify the qualities articulated in the desired outcomes of education at the end of secondary education. In addition, MOE Edusave Character Award (ECHA) recognises Singaporean students who demonstrate exemplary character and outstanding personal qualities through their behaviour and actions. Other MOE Edusave awards include Edusave Scholarships (ES), Edusave Award for Achievement, Good Leadership and Service (EAGLES), Edusave Merit Bursary (EMB) and Edusave Good Progress Award (GPA).

At the school level, students who embody the school's vision and exemplify the school values are recognised through the AI GEM (Growth with Excellence and Motivation) Award, on a termly basis. This affirms students for their growth and demonstration of school values in their daily interactions. Students are recognised for being intrinsically motivated to do the right things well with a mindset of excellence.

The school also recognises students' development using Conduct Grade, Personal Quality ratings, academic awards, fitness awards, LEAPS and Co-curricular Excellence Awards (Merit and Distinction). The school affirms our students' achievements in academics, participation in CCA, school activities or competitions through various platforms such as Honouring Sessions, School Assemblies and Achievement Day.

ACADEMIC MATTERS

1. Assessments

Philosophy

In AISS, assessments are designed for you to understand how well you have learned at appropriate junctures of the school year. Assessments are not just tests or examinations but include daily assignments on paper or digital platforms, including the in-class quizzes and projects. The feedback that you gain from the assessments will help you grow and move forward in your learning. Feedback may come in the form of marks and written comments from teachers, critique from your peers in group work or self- assessment when comparing your own work against a set of rubrics or success criteria. Instead of focusing on the marks, adopt a growth mindset and use the feedback to discover your strengths and uncover your learning gaps so that you can take the necessary steps to improve.

Besides the end-of-year examination, you will have two or three weighted assessments conducted in various modes so that you can demonstrate your learning in different ways. Your assessments may be in the form of class tests, performance tasks, practical assessments, or project work, where you may be assessed individually or in groups. For example, for Secondary 2 Geography, there is a Geographical Investigation task you will complete collaboratively as a group. These various modes of assessment and learning experiences will help you develop emerging 21st Century Competencies such as adaptive and inventive thinking, civic literacy and communication skills.

It is important for you to adopt positive learning habits and avoid cramming revision only for the end- of- year examination. With consistent revision and completion of assignments, you will not be overly stressed or anxious when facing tests or examinations, and you will have a more enjoyable overall learning experience.

Assessment Structure

For Secondary 1 to 3 students, the weightings of the Weighted Assessments (WA) and End-of-Year Examination (EYE) are shown in Table 1 while Table 2 shows the weightings for Art, FCE and D&T for Lower Secondary.

Table 1: Weightings of Assessments for Secondary 1 to 3 students

Assessment	WA1	WA2	WA3	End-of-Year Examination

For all subjects	0	100

Examination Guidelines

- 1) Students are expected to be in proper school uniform when taking an examination.
- 2) Students must also follow the Code of Conduct at all times.
- 3) Students are expected to be punctual for the examination. If a student is late due to unforeseen circumstances, he/she should report to the General Office to take his/her attendance and obtain a green slip for late-coming. They should not report directly to the exam venue.
- 4) If a student is sick on the day of assessment, including weighted assessments and examination, the student should ask his/her parents to call and notify the school in the morning (6758 5384). Only a medical certificate will be accepted to cover the student's absence for that assessment. There will not be a re-sit for the assessment.
- 5) Before the start of each paper during the examination period, students should:
 - (a) Prepare all necessary stationery as borrowing of any material is not allowed.
 - (b) Clear all books and materials under the table.
 - (c) Check that there is no unauthorised materials in their pencil cases and pockets of their uniforms.
 - (d) Ensure all communication devices of any form are switched off and kept in the school bag as possession of any communication devices, such as mobile phones, during examination is strictly not allowed. Mobile phones should be kept in lockers.
- 6) When sitting for a paper, students should:
 - a) Use a blue or black pen for answers unless the question requires construction (in Mathematics), graphs or shading of the OAS where pencil can be used.
 - b) Check that the examination paper has the correct Subject Code.
- 7) Students should note that cheating is a serious offence. Communication of any form is prohibited in the duration of an examination. If a student requires any assistance, he/she should raise his/her hand to seek the invigilator's help.
- 8) Any student caught cheating, giving or trying to obtain assistance from his/her peers during the examination will automatically be given a zero for the paper. Parents will also be notified.

2. Assessments

In the pursuit of academic excellence, we are committed to developing learners with character and learners who are always striving to ACE in what they do. At AISS, lessons within and beyond the classroom, on or offline, are designed to be purposeful, relevant and within the real-world context where possible. This provides students the opportunity to immerse themselves whole-heartedly in learning and discovering new horizons.

Personal Digital Learning Plan and Blended Learning in AISS

The usage of Personal Learning Devices (PLDs) is transforming our school's learning environment as it allows our teachers and students to harness technology for greater effectiveness in teaching and learning. The use of personal learning devices for teaching and learning will also help to support the development of digital literacies in our students as well as develop them as self-directed and collaborative learners.

Student-Initiated Learning (SIL) in AISS

At AISS, Student-Initiated Learning (SIL) empowers our students to take ownership of their learning journey, fostering independence and a lifelong passion for discovery. In an ever-changing world, adaptability and self-reliance are essential. SIL helps our students build the skills they need to thrive by encouraging them to remain curious, resilient, and resourceful.

A core principle of SIL is student autonomy. Learners independently identify and pursue topics that spark their interest, developing crucial self-directed learning habits. This is especially impactful during Home-Based Learning (HBL) days, where students are encouraged to use this time to proactively explore their own passions—whether it's coding, baking, creative writing, music, or any other personal interest—on their own terms.

A key component of this initiative is our dedicated makerspace, which provides students with the tools and technology to turn their ideas into reality. This creative hub supports hands-on projects in robotics, engineering, digital fabrication, and more, ensuring that theoretical learning is consistently paired with practical application.

By independently pursuing these interests, students not only discover more about their strengths and passions but also cultivate a clearer sense of purpose. SIL equips them with the confidence, practical skills, and direction needed to make informed choices about their future pathways when they graduate from AISS.

Note that a Grade 9 at O-Level does not count towards the ELMAB3 aggregate score for PFP admission. Students also cannot use G2 Grade 6 and G1 Grade E for aggregate computation for admission to Polytechnic Foundation Programme, Direct-Entry-Scheme to Polytechnic Programme and S5 / the 5th year.

Progressing through Secondary School Years with Full Subject-Based Banding (Full SBB)

With Full SBB, all secondary school students will generally progress to the next year of learning. They have the flexibility to adjust their subject levels at appropriate junctures based on their overall strengths, interests and learning needs, and the school's holistic considerations.

This infographic shows how students can adjust their curricular load across the secondary years. By giving students greater ownership of their learning, we hope that they will develop a growth mindset and an intrinsic motivation to learn for life.

Start of S1

All students offer the following subjects in lower secondary:
English Language (EL)	Students' Posting Groups will guide the initial subject levels students offer at the start of S1.
Mother Tongue Language (MTL)
Mathematics (MA)
Science (SCI)
Humanities (HUM)
Art
Design & Technology (D&T)
Food & Consumer Education (FCE)
Music	Common Curriculum Subjects
Physical Education (PE)
Character & Citizenship Education (CCE)

Offering Subjects at More Demanding Level (MDL)

Eligible students can offer EL, MTL, MA and SCI at MDL based on their PSLE Achievement Level (AL) for each of these subjects.

Indicative Level of Most Subjects at Start of S1	PSLE Standard Grade	PSLE Foundation Grade	Option to offer subject at
G1	AL 5 or better	-	G3 / G2
	AL 6	AL A	G2
G2	AL 5 or better	-	G3

End of S1

Students will progress to S2 and offer subjects at existing subject levels.

Students who have done well may offer subjects at MDL in S2, based on school's holistic considerations.

End of S2

Students can adjust their curricular load the following year, based on school's holistic considerations which include students' subject-specific performance and their ability to cope with all subjects.

End of S3

Students will continue to offer their same subject combination in S4 if they are able to cope.

If students cannot cope

The school will engage students and parents. Options include reducing the number of elective subjects and/or offering subjects at LDL. Students will generally progress to S4.

End of S4

The 5th year will continue to be available under Full SBB, to allow eligible students to pace their learning and offer subjects at a more demanding level to access more post-secondary pathways.

In line with developing our students holistically and for them to be involved in meaningful pursuits such as CCAs and developing other talents and spending time with family and friends, a homework policy will act as a guide to ensure this balance.

1. The time norms for AISS' homework policy are aligned with MOE's recommended norms, as shown in the table below.

Levels	Approximate Weekly Time Norms
S1 to S2	< 13h
S3 to S5	< 14h

2. Homework is pitched at the appropriate level with consideration to homework given by other teachers such that students' homework does not exceed the norms. This does not include time spent on studying for tests/ exams. Teachers will establish and communicate clear expectations to students on the purpose and procedure of homework.

3. Homework given during school holidays will not be excessive, and is expected to be no more than 50% of the daily load given during the school term
